To The People Of Kauai

Grasp this opportunity before it is too late! A few dollars properly invested might put you on Easy Street. Be a sport and take a chance. If you fail, go to it again. Wealthy people were poor, but took a chance and made good. Your kind men work for a salary and rent a house all their lives. They lack power to assert themselves. A trip to the Coast for an auto ride would cover their savings for a year. The farmer takes a chance when he plants; the ship may sink; your house may burn down, but only a coward loses courage.

I copy from Los Angeles Herald, received on this mail:

"Lakeview No. 2 Oil Co. Hits Big Gas Well—Mud and Water Thrown High Over the Derrick."

"It is thought by all men who have visited the property that the company is just over the main oil sand, and that within the next few feet the well will encounter a flow that will compare favorably with the new well of the Lakeview, the Consolidated Midway, the standard and other producers of that locality."

"The fact that when the gas pressure in this well broke loose there was over 4200 feet of water in the hole, and before the shale could leave up into the casing this whole column of water had to be lifted by the gas pressure, leads those who are keeping close tabs on conditions in this vicinity to believe that something more than common can be looked for when this well penetrates to the main sand."

A deep well assures a big gusher for years, as it drains the oil from the upper levels."

Lakeview No. 1 stock cost $84, and sold for $20.00 per share.

The price of Lakeview No. 2 is now $100, and have no doubt it will jump to $200 per share."

"This is your opportunity to take a gamble in almost a sure proposition."

Men and women desirous of improving their condition in life should read this carefully and get quickly as many shares as will be sold after the well comes in."

Where The Drummers Are To Be Found

The various drummers who have been seen so prominently within the past week, can be located for the present at the following places: Bustard Kerr and Austin at Fairview, awaiting transportation to Honolulu. Will probably be successful about 5 p. m. Sid Spitzer is at the Bay View, where he is recovering from an attack of basketballitis contracted last Sunday afternoon. Well is in Kealia or at least should be, while Schmidt and Thilen, were last seen in a combined effort to make a get away for Hamalei. They will no doubt be successful as both gentlemen are men of determination and who would make the trip even though they were compelled to buy a car.

J. A. Honan the Makaweli crack twirler left for town on a vacation.

Mr. A. G. Kaulukou made an excellent interpreter for the recent meeting of the churches.

Cards announcing the Lihue annual fair have been printed in this office and it is hoped that the year's efforts will excel all others in grandeur as well as socially and financially.

Mr. Scudder, managing Editor of the "Friend," Honolulu, leaves for Honolulu today after having spent a week among Kauai friends.

Rev. W. B. Oleson and Mr. Perley Horne under the Chaperonage of Mortimer Lydgate spent Friday night and Saturday at the Lydgate Mountain House. They report bracing weather there and excellent appetites.

It is getting to be too much the fashion that the value of intellectual training is measured by the dollar-and-cents standard. Education, besides fitting boys and girls to become bread-winners, ought to fit them to live intelligently amid their surroundings.

KAUAI'S EMPORIUM

BASEBALL AT KAPAA

The Kapaa League teams came together on the home diamond last Sunday and dished up two very classy games. The Lawai bunch rang up 14 runs against the McBryde's and the All Koloa. It was with some surprise the Koloa Baseball fans read this account of the game, and I feel a little explanation is necessary.

In the first place what has become over your Elelee Subscriber? (I am pleased he is not classed a correspondent) Is it possible that the same Kahuna who overcame the Elelee pitcher in the League game on the Makaweli ground has driven them to the press in vain glory.

It is interesting to follow their efforts in this direction. First they come out and challenge the recognized champions of the League, Makaweli only smiles. Determined not to let the matter drop they again call in the assistance of your valuable newsy little paper, this time in direct praise of their own players, this time Kauai smiles.

Now thirsting for blood they get the pick of their team together, strengthen them by the inclusion of the Homestead stars call themselves the McB's. With this powerful combination they rally forth to meet the newly formed Junior team (Wailanis) who the previous week played a second nine of the Homesteads.

The expected happened—they won, but this crack combination had not things all their own way, four of the school boys romping home, no mean accomplishment against such a team.

This is the great victory against the All Koloas, (Koloa Smiles) I may add only one of the Wailanis has ever played in a League game.

Surely your subscriber noticed the umpire was none other than Sasaki, Koloas crack shortstop, while among the enthusiastic fans who witnessed the game was Koloas genial captain A. Perry.

Some day (in season) the All Koloas will meet this combination, then your subscriber will take a rest.

Yours truly,
FAIRPLAY.
